

LAWRENCE P. SCHNAPF

Lawrence P. Schnapf is an environmental attorney based in New York City over 39 years of national environmental experience and is the principal of Schnapf LLC. Larry advises clients on environmental issues associated with business transactions, federal and state environmental litigation, enforcement actions, administrative proceedings and private cost recovery actions. He is also adjunct professor of environmental law at New York Law School. He has written numerous articles on environmental law and is the author of "Managing Environmental Liability." Larry is past chair of the Environmental Law Section of the New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) and ABA Committee on Environmental, Energy and Natural Resources Law.

Larry has been interested in the JFK Assassination since he heard about it in his 5th grade class. In college, Larry completed an independent study project on the JFK Assassination and wrote a series of early articles on the flawed Warren Commission Investigation. Larry is a long-time member of MFF and is former board member of CAPA where he was the chair of the CAPA legal committee. He organized the two-day 2017 mock trial of Lee Oswald held at the South Texas College of Law and the 2019 CAPA mock Court of Inquiry. In both of these proceedings, he served as co-defense counsel. He also has lectured on various legal and evidentiary issues concerning the JFK Assassination.

Larry has a website devoted to the JFK Assassination (<https://jfkcsi.com>) and a Facebook page "JFK- The Hard Evidence or Junk Science" available at: //www.facebook.com/groups/337920816220010
